

Meet Your Negotiators Attend Contract Kickoff BBQ's

To provide members with another avenue for input and face-to-face communication, the Union has planned a week of 'contract kickoff' barbecues during the week of April 21st from noon to 5 p.m.

These barbecues will be an opportunity for every member to meet all the Union negotiators to discuss issues of concern and answer questions on the upcoming negotiations before the formal proposal is submitted to the Boeing Company on May 9th. The more members get involved and voice their opinions, the more accurately the Union proposal will reflect membership priorities.

The barbecues cannot be held on Boeing property so they will be at the various Union halls (Auburn, Everett, Renton and Seattle), as well as at the Tacoma Sportsman's Club for those members near the Frederickson plant.

Since our members only get half an hour for lunch, the barbecues were scheduled with the idea of members attending after first shift or before going to work on second shift. Third shift members can select the time that is most convenient for their schedule, as well.
