

1

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

2

SUBJECT: AOG LEADS

3

4

5

The parties agrees to deactivate job code 66611 – Customer Field Repair Work Organizer currently utilized in Aircraft On Ground (AOG).

6

7

Dated: September 13, 2024

Standard Factory Job Description

Code: 66611

Grade: 11

Job Title: Customer Field Repair Work Organizer

Determining Duties and Responsibilities:

At a remote location and assigned to commercial customer airplane field repair (A.O.G), work with Engineering, Planning, Quality Control, Airline Representatives and Supervision to assist in the evaluation and work organization planning for repair of damaged airplanes. At the airplane damage location as assigned, lead, work with, plan organize the work group of employees engaged in repair and restoration of damaged airplane systems and structures. Devise, introduce and use mechanical techniques and methods to enable completion of assigned repair in the most efficient and economical manner and pass on detailed instructions to lower classified employees.

Associated Duties and Responsibilities:

1. Devise work-around methods and recommend parts and material substitutions to avoid repair delays.
2. Lay out fabrication and assembly tasks to accomplish airplane repair.
3. Review engineering, planning and other forms of technical data to organize work assignments.
4. Devise temporary tools, aids and equipment when not available.
5. Organize work using prints, planning, sketches and verbal instructions.
6. Use precision measuring instruments and equipment and use mathematics to lay out and organize work assignments.
7. Maintain reports and records as necessary.

Effective Date: 10/02/74